25 YEARS OF EUFF IN INDIA

WELCOME MESSAGE

“I am delighted to announce the launch of the 25th edition of the European Union Film Festival in India, in collaboration with our Member States. It will take viewers through a journey across Europe as retold by our storytellers. This landmark anniversary is also a testament to our long-standing cultural ties with India. Highlighting individual stories yet reflecting universal experiences, this year’s special anniversary edition will offer a window into the heart of Europe and the power of cinema to negotiate both everyday and extraordinary circumstances.”

-Ugo Astuto, Ambassador of the European Union to India and Bhutan

A NOTE FROM THE CURATOR

"In 2020, Covid-19 has disrupted our lives all over the world and we're all in this together. People who belong to different geographical, social, cultural, political contexts are living the same experience, often facing tragic consequences of this pandemic. Cultural and creative sectors are among the most affected by the current crisis, due to the sudden and massive loss of opportunities, especially for the more fragile players.

However, today, more than ever, the importance of cinema for our societies is evident, helping us to make sense of this pandemic. Sharing art, in all its forms, even if virtual, has been and continues to be the main and powerful way to stand united, beyond all borders, helping share our human feelings, our fears as well as our hopes about the future.

Thanks to the popular nature of cinema, with it being one of the most immediate and democratic art forms we can enjoy, the European Union Film Festival in India aims to be a magic mirror we can use to jointly get through the current challenging times we are witnessing. This year the virtual European Union Film Festival in India will be showcasing the variety and the complexity of the European Union's culture through innovative film programming, opening paths for fruitful people-to-people and cultural relationships with India and the extraordinary wealth of its millennial culture.

We hope this virtual Festival will contribute to make the film sector a key driver for dialogue, especially in the current situation where culture and creativity have become more important than ever."

- Veronica Flora, Programmer and Curator

INTRODUCTION

The European Union Film Festival is an annual event celebrating the diversity and depth of European cinema and culture. 2020 marks the 25th anniversary of the Festival in India and for the first time goes digital. In this very special edition, the Festival will feature outstanding, award-winning films from 26 European countries, celebrating the most recent cinematic triumphs at Cannes, Locarno, Venice, Berlin and San Sebastian, amongst others.

Highlighting individual stories yet reflecting universal experiences, the films offer a window into the heart of Europe and provide a unique look at the power of cinema to negotiate both quotidian and extraordinary circumstances. 15 remarkable female directors will feature in the Festival line-up, offering trailblazing and evocative perspectives.

Recognizing that excellence in European cinema has been forged by legends across the continent, the Festival is delighted to present a distinctive look at Europe's rich and enviable cinematic history. From Agnès Varda's seminal Cleo From 5 to 7 and Kieslowski's Three Colours: Blue, to Bergman's Persona, and Bunuel's surrealist masterpiece The Exterminating Angel, from Antonio Pietrangeli's iconic I Knew Her Well to the classic of the Czech New Wave, Milos Forman's Loves of a Blonde, up to the dramatically current Ali: Fear Eats the Soul by Rainer Werner Fassbinder, the Festival will take viewers through an unparalleled journey across Europe as retold by its most inventive and ground-breaking storytellers.

As a tribute to the rich and indelible imprint of Indian cinema, the Festival will offer viewers a look into the classic and the contemporary, through the section Poetry on Screen: Satyajit Ray and Chaitanya Tamhane, featuring the iconic Aparajito and the award-winning Court. Viewers will get an exclusive insight into the artistic underpinnings of director and screenwriter Chaitanya Tamhane, who will participate in an exclusive side-event with a European counterpart.

Given the immediacy of the climate emergency, the Festival will provide a means to assess how it is being felt in different parts of the world through a series of shorts. Nila Madhab Panda's Megha's Divorce is a particular highlight, among an anthology of six that form part of the film Interdependence.

With this special line-up, we welcome you to the 25th anniversary of the European Union Film Festival in India!

Lola is a jet setting business consultant who excels at the aggressive tactics and non-stop work her job requires. She travels back and forth from Vienna, where her tasteful apartment serves more as mailbox and laundromat than home, to the headquarters of the latest corporation she's restructuring. Her routine is one of late nights at the office, fancy client dinners and brief nights of sleep in sterile hotel rooms. Approaching 30, Lola is beautiful, works out, and her career seems on a fast track to success.

Lola manages her personal life with the same ruthless efficiency she uses to optimize profit margins. She keeps her relationship with her boss Elise secret, as well as the existence of her older sister Conny, who has a long history of mental illness. But when she receives the news that Conny has attempted suicide, Lola's secrets threaten to explode into the open. As she tries to do what's best for her sister without jeopardizing all she's worked so hard for, Lola slowly finds her own grip on reality slipping away.

COLD CASE HAMMARSKJÖLD

It's midnight. Rhodesia's jungle is dressed in a steaming, reeking black. A propeller is heard in the distance, bearing down upon us. Many years later, stories are still told about Belgian mercenaries creeping around in the dark that night. In the plane is UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld and his entourage of fifteen persons, and in a few seconds, they will not exist anymore. From this moment, you can draw a direct line to the Congolese civil war, Mobutu's regime, the ongoing and accelerating exploitation of Africa and the total post-colonial nightmare as we know it today – all this due to the single incident taking place right now.

The three stories within Genesis are rooted in the biblical notion of family: a woman in her late thirties rediscovers the faith she lost as a child; a mother goes to extreme lengths to ensure that her child is saved from the fate that she was forced to endure; a Roma boy's family are killed, and the perfect world of his childhood is destroyed. All three stories are based on real events that took place in Hungary: the Roma murders. The three protagonists are one way or another affected by these events, which change their lives fundamentally.

Everyone looks at her. She's beautiful, coquettish, impulsive. She buys a hat and takes a taxi home. For 90 minutes, as clocks mark the time, we will be with her every instant. Her housekeeper, lover and musicians understand nothing of her anxiety. She practices a song and its lyrics upset her. She goes out again, alone.

Fear awakens her. She begins to see others, people in the street, people in cafés, a caring friend. She goes to a park to look at trees and meets a soldier at the end of his leave. The bond that forms between them, at this dangerous time in their lives, soothes Cléo. He accompanies her to the hospital before returning to the war in Algeria. They share a moment of grace on this, the longest day of the year.

The second part of Satyajit Ray's famous Apu trilogy, this Indian drama focuses on young Apu, who lives with his mother, Sarbjaya (Kanu Bandyopadhyay), and father, Harihar (Pinaki Sengupta), near the Ganges River. When Harihar dies suddenly, Apu and Sarbjaya move to a small village to be near relatives. Eventually, she reluctantly allows her son (now played by Smaran Ghosal) to attend school in Calcutta. As Apu acclimates to life in the city, Sarbjaya struggles with his absence.

Narayan Kamble is an ageing folk singer living in Mumbai who has been marked by the authorities as a dissident. Kamble's latest charge is for inciting the suicide of a sewage worker through the allegedly seditious lyrics in his songs. With no evidence and few witnesses, events unfold in a lower Mumbai court-room, shedding a cold light on the justice system in contemporary India. Alongside this, glimpses into the lives and minds of Kamble's defence lawyer, the prosecutor and the judge illuminate the personal prejudices, corruption and ultimately injustice still prevalent in the shadows of the system. Tamhane's debut feature places this convincing narrative within the context of a country full of contrasts: modernity versus tradition, wealth versus poverty, young versus old, with both humanity and humour.
